After devoting 49 years of her life to teaching the young of a community, she retired in December of 1957.

Miss Farris has been listed in Who's Who in Education and her name is included in the Library of the Alabama Lives, published in 1961 as a reference edition recording the biographies of contemporary leaders in Alabama with special emphasis on their achievements.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church—regularly and read your Bible daily.

SUNRISE IN HOLLYWOOD

This is the city where pretense is a profession... where emotion is an art. This is Hollywood's famous Bowl at sunrise on Easter morning.

Thousands raising their hearts and prayers to the Lord of Reality... of Truth!

Don't be deluded by the artificiality which sometimes claims the center of life's stage. There is a hunger in the souls of men which our air of well-being cannot hide. There is frustration, futility, despair—and man's calculated unconcern cannot disguise it.

To our churches—to worship, hymn and prayer—we turn when we tire of dreaming and pretending. Can we claim any glory greater than that we are the children of God? Can we own any allegiance bolder than that we are the disciples of Jesus Christ... Risen, Victorious?

Easter is the climax of life's drama... on which the curtain never falls!

'Round Town

COFFEE NEWS & CHAT

BY SARA E. HUTCHINSON

EGGS

To protect the high quality of the eggs you buy, keep them cold. Avoid leaving them in a hot car or in a hot kitchen for any length of time. Extreme variations in temperature or lengthy exposure to high temperatures can lower the quality of eggs. Store eggs with the big end up in the refrigerator. Also store them in the carton in which you bought them. The covering retards moisture loss and helps prevent absorption of odors. For the best flavor and cooking quality, use eggs a week after purchase. After long storage they may get an "off flavor" and lose some of their thickening and leavening power. With the Easter bunny on the way you'll want to prepare the eggs correctly. To hard cook eggs, put them in cold water and bring them to a boil. Remove from heat and let them remain in the boiler for 25 minutes. This way the yolks will be tender and have a good color.

DIABETIC CAKE
Yesterday while visiting with our neighbor, L. O. Weeks, I sampled a delicious diabetic cake. Mrs. Weeks had made this cake for her mother who is a diabetic. If any of you are interested in having the recipe, let me know and I'll be happy to send the recipe to you. Phone our Enterprise or Elba office.

BLENDER
Many homemakers have blenders today and they use them in unusual ways. For example, Mrs. Dan Prigden uses hers for grinding coffee beans.

Thus, she always has the aroma of freshly ground coffee.

Mrs. Roy Ellis uses hers for making mayonnaise. Her family enjoys this home-made product which is so easily done with a food blender.

Alabama's Fine Vacation Spots

The first definitive film ever produced covering Alabama's vacation attractions will be available for showing in early July.

The full color, twenty-eight and a half minute, 16mm film was over a year in production reports the State Bureau of Publicity and Information.

Its carefully unified story structure, mood and music serve to avoid the pitfalls of its being classified as a run-of-the-mill catalog of attractions. Fun, history, natural beauty and attractions are skillfully interlarded to create a sense of the State in depth rather than presenting a superficial state at it. Unconventional and spectacularly beautiful, the film completely involves the viewer.

Lyric photography and subjective camera treatment combine to give a sense of "being there."

Bureau of Publicity and Information Director, Martin J. Darby, said, "The story line is one day in Alabama, from sunrise to sundown, seen through the eyes of a perceptive person blessed with the dramatic license to move back and forth across Alabama, putting together a kind of mosaic."

Camera and music tell the story with narration held to a minimum. The technique serves as an underscore to keep the facts straight and locations identified.

"Alabama Holiday," an original tune written by Henry Kimbrell, and first heard on state travel promotion television spots during 1967, is used as a leitmotif throughout the work. The music is one of the many factors that gives the film a uniqueness.... a freshness, thus avoiding the hackneyed, the canned the conventional.

The best meat for outdoor cooking should be at least one inch thick.

TOO LOW
I saw a copy of a report this week giving the yields of corn of the various counties for 1967. Yields are as follows: Barbour-34, Coffee-39, Bullock-37, Dale-42, Geneva-44, Henry-43, Pike-42, Covington-40, and Crenshaw-41.

PEANUT YIELDS
Speaking of yields, here are some facts just released on peanut yields in the Wiregrass for 1967: Barbour-1298 pounds per acre, Coffee-1350, Covington-1365, Crenshaw-993, Dale-1364 and Henry-1363. Geneva had an average of 1562 pounds and Houston had an average yield of 1696.

From these figures it is obvious that Geneva County is beating us by about 200 pounds per acre and Houston by 300 pounds per acre. Coffee County farmers, I believe can close this gap. Incidentally, Coffee County has the third largest increase in the state. Averages are as follows: Houston - 30,000; Henry-28,000; Geneva-16,000; Dale-15,000; Covington-9,000; and Coffee-22,000.

4-H RECORDS
Dan Presley told me that he has had a 100 per cent increase in 4-H Club record books being turned in by members. One reason for this is the fact that Presley got an awards program underway two years ago for 4-H Club members who excel in project work. He is awarding trophies, ribbons, savings bonds, wrist watches, and other awards made possible by the 4-H Club Foundation and interested businessmen.

COMMUNITY CALF SHOWS
Mrs. Vincent Rogers of Route One, New Brockton, mentioned to me the other day that we had a community calf show in Kinston with 8 boys and girls and didn't have one for the Goodman boys and girls even though they had more than Kinston. I was glad to hear about this additional interest in the community shows.

The folks over at Kinston really had a fine show a few nights ago and plans have already been made to continue this next year as well as at Goodman, New Hope, Mt. Pleasant, New Britain and other areas where interest develops. Rex Wyrosick, who showed in the Junior Cattleman's show Wednesday in Elba, told me that his calf handled so much better in the Junior Cattleman's show as a result of having shown in the Kinston Community Show. Of course, the main value is that the young people develop their skills and interest in good cattle by increased participation.

RECREATION
Robert Clark, our recreation specialist, spent Friday working with individuals in the county who are interested in developing recreational sites for people who live in the county and also for tourists. Clark works full time with the Auburn University Extension Service helping to decide on activities that will be most profitable.

Clark and Extension Farm Agent Dan Presley visited Rex Lowery of the Jack Community to plan additional facilities in and around his commercial fish ponds. I am sure that other folks are interested in this type thing. If you are interested, get in touch with me.

It was a pleasure for Mr. Speed and Mr. Presley and me to attend the annual Cattleman's Association Show and Sale which was held in Elba. The Cattleman's show, we enjoyed seeing boys like Lee

Boyd of Elba and Rex Wyrosick of Kinston show their calves. In fact, Boyd won the top showmanship award. However, younger children also did an excellent job. I am thinking of Anita Sessions, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bowden Sessions, who stayed right in there with the boys showing her calves. Of course, the bigger awards went to Davey and Freddy Sessions. They showed both the Grand and Reserved Champions. Little Chris Sessions, the 7 year old baby in the family, put on a real show showing his calf. The Sessions boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sessions of Route 3, Elba.

Incidentally, the county-wide 4-H Club Calf Show will be held Friday night, April 26, at the Little League Field in Enterprise.

Alabama Gov. Lurleen B. Wallace has called upon "all Alabamians to support educational and fund-raising efforts of the American Cancer Society" during the April crusade.

Governor Wallace proclaimed April "Cancer Control Month" in Alabama in keeping with the President's proclamation for the entire nation.

She said "knowledge of the signs of cancer popularized by the American Cancer Society can help save thousands of lives from cancer," adding that "it is appropriate that all Alabamians learn and recognize the warning signals."

The signals are: (1) Unusual bleeding or discharge (2) A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere (3) A sore that does not heal (4) Change in bowel or bladder habits (5) Hoarseness or cough (6) Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing (7) Change in wart or mole.

This money is only a start on the required funds for air conditioning the auditorium and Taylor states that the money must come from contributions of civic groups and because it is impossible for the school board to finance any additional projects with their limited funds.

Co-op Wins Court Suit

Alabama Electric Co. decision upholding an earlier decision in the U.S. District Court. The court ruled in favor of the Alabama Power Co. in a suit to block construction of a steam generating plant in Washington County near Jackson. The court also upheld Alabama Electric's right to enter into 35-year contracts with its member distribution cooperatives and municipalities to purchase the power which will be generated at the new plant.

The legal battle has been underway since 1962. The generating plant which is the subject of the court battle is nearly completed along with high capacity substations and other related facilities.

One of the most significant aspects of the ruling was the appellate court's finding that Alabama Power Company had no standing on which to base its claim that Alabama Electric was violating anti-trust regulations by making long-term contracts and constructing the new plant.

The 35-year contracts were required by the Rural Electrification Administration as security to the 35-year loan to Alabama Electric for construction of the plant designed to supply its own members with bulk electrical power.

The REA Administrator had approved the loan to Alabama Electric giving his reasons as "significant savings in the cost of power to AEC and its members" and stating "the loan was necessary to protect the effectiveness and security of AEC" since Alabama Power has "demonstrated its intent to deprive AEC and the members of existing and potential consumers in their service areas."

Alabama Power Company had sought to block the construction of the new plant, to void the 35-year contracts between Alabama Electric and its long time members and had asked for treble damages, costs and attorneys' fees.

The majority decision was handed down by Circuit Judges Richard T. Rives of Montgomery and Walter P. Gwin of Tuscaloosa. Judge John Godbold of Montgomery dissented.
